Danish language courses
for foreigners

Target group

Adult foreigners who work in Denmark either in Lemvig, Holstebro or Struer municipality, who do not have a permanent address in Denmark, but commute between a EU/EEA-country (or Switzerland) and a workplace in Denmark

Being a foreign employee or foreign business owner with a company located in Denmark, without a permanent address in Denmark, also gives you a right to Danish language tuition on equal terms with other foreigners with permanent address in Denmark.

What you should do

To participate in Danish language courses on a language center you should contact the Job Center located in the same municipality as your workplace.

You have to provide documentation for your EU/EEA or Suisse citizenship (bring your passport).
You also have to bring documentation for your tax payer number.
As a company owner you should bring your registration certificate from The Central Business Register (CVR)
